Bill Neth Named Top Beard Grower

Eleven Prizes Given At Dance

Climaxing four trying weeks of ridicule, the jaysee beard growers received their awards yesterday. Bill Neth of Costa Mesa was a clean winner with Kenny Harrison of Santa Ana a close runner-up.

The judging was held at the noon dance on Thursday with the candidates for May Queen presiding as judges. Rodger Howell acted as chairman and promoter for the contest and also obtained awards from local merchants for the winners.

The following jaysee students won in other divisions: the scrawniest beard in jaysee was the title George Schmidt won with Calvin Newton coming in a close second. Mr. Craemer took the prize for the best trimmed beard with Rodger Howell as second place. The two students who most resembled a dog with the mange were Donald Tripp, first place; Bob Jones, sec-ond place. The judges decreed that Blake had tried the hardest to win, with Gabriel and Miller following his lead in second and third places respectively.

Kenny Gabriel, who was acting in the capacity of announcer, asked for a round of applause for Rodger Howell who was responsible for the contest.

The following merchants contributed prizes for the winners: today. Vic's Cigfiar store, Vandermast's, Votin Lowe's, Blu-Note, Turner's, Swandecided berger's, Brook's, Neal's, Al Jasper, Santa Ana Book Store and J. C. Penney.

Proclamation

We students are faced with a task the success of which means the success of three things. If we make a success of this coming War Bond drive we will have made a success of a major college undertaking. With effort we can raise the reputation of our jaysee in this community for service. We will have made ourselves proud of our college and every citizen respectful of its ability as an active institution. This I believe is of outstanding importance to our bond drive.

Secondly, the choosing of a May Queen means success of students working together, not the mere choosing of one girl nominee over another. The value of this success is not that end. The success is in the means to the end, an active student body willing to work and support their candidates throughout the campaign.

Thirdly, we will have had an additional part in the winning of the war by urging and securing a large sale of War Bonds. This is the important thing.

Let's think of success, realizing the hard work ahead and put everything we have -time, talents, and enthusiasm—behind aiding our country, our college, and ourselves.

-BOB JONES A.S.B.P.

Well, the time has come, the Walrus said, to talk of many things. Mainly the approaching AWS women's choice dance and the bond drive which it wil open. You've picked your candidates; you've shown a lot of spirit in doing that. Is that spirit going to die out or will you go to the dance, support the bond campaign? This is your chance to show that jaysee can have college spirit in wartime and to show that we can do our part in contributing to the war effort. The dance is every woman's responsibility; the bond drive is the responsibility of every student, man or woman.

able amount of talk has been circulating around the campus that the coming AWS dance is to be a ladies' choice affair.

An editorial in your paper last issue urged students to buy ASB tickets, and as one of the reasons for buying such a ticket you stated that it gave the student a voice in campus affair.s I should this series of columns—I hope like to know what say the students have had in the deciding of this coming dance.

> As a student body ticket holder I feel that I have the right to protest. The majority of the students do not want the dance to be a girls' choice. Some members of the executive board did not want the dance to be a girls' choice, many protests were made; yet as in the past the dance is to be a ladies' choice.

Seeing that this is the last dance of the school year, I feel that the students should have the right to vote how they want the dance conducted. I feel that student body ticket holders have been deprived of enough privileges without having an opportunity to express their views on this matter.

WHAT'S YOUR ANSWER

Since December 7 of 1941 we have been confronted almost every day with the question, "Well, what are you doing for the war effort?" Some of us have had a pretty satisfactory answer to that question; most of us have stammered and said that we were too busy to give much of our time to this or that activity.

And when we've given our explanations, our alibis for not buying a war stamp when the girls come around to classes, for not turning out for Red Cross, for not giving our blood when the blood bank visits in Santa Ana, someone always gives us a stern look and tells us that we're evading our duty. They tell us that we've grown indifferent, that nothing should be too much trouble if it will end the war that much sooner.

"We've heard all the answers and we know them by of our track team's first meet at heart; so we just shrug our shoulders mentally and tell ourselves that "they" just don't understand . . . with us it's different, for we'd do it if we possibly had the timeor the money. We forget to add "or the interest." And so we go on our way until the next energetic person with an eager look in his eye confronts us with the old question, "Well, what are you doing for the war effort?"

But some of us do see the light eventually. After more fund and improvements in the than two years of indifference, we read a newspaper and

Dear Lord, Lest I continue My complacent way, Help me to remember Somewhere out there A man died for me today.

As long as there be war, I then must Ask and answer Am I worth dying for?

And now we are confronted with a new question, one which our oun minds ask and which we cannot escape behind a veil of indifference. When we are about to answer from force of habit that we are too busy or haven't the money, the question comes to us . . . "Am I worth dying for?"

FOR WOMEN ONLY

Now it can be told; the AWS dance is to be a women's choice. It is difficult to conceive why, with every other campus tradition broken, this one should remain, but the fact is that it has remained. The dance is to be a women's choice.

Many of us opposed the idea of a ladies' choice, some signed a petition to have it changed, some even went so far as to state that they would not attend unless present plans were changed. Well, present plans are not to be changed and good sportsmanship demands that we accept the terms and go all out to make the dance a big success.

It is the first time this semester that the success or failure of an event has depended entirely upon the women. It is the women's first chance to prove their real campus spirit. Considering the ratio of men to women enrolled in jaysee if every man is not invited at least twice, something is wrong and not with the men.

For the first time this year the men can sit back, and let the women do the work. It is no secret that male spirit has been much better than the women's. This is the women's chance to prove that they are equal to any situation for the AWS dance is the last college dance of the year. Let's make it the best one.—K.L.G.

Forming a new club, the Las Meninas alumnae of '37, '38, and '39, held their first meeting last Friday evening at Danigers, it was Waves on March 23, from nine to announced today by advisers Miss Dorothy Decker and Miss Genevieve Humiston.

Miss Maxine Knight, former gym instructor, acted as toastmistress for the evening meeting, which was attended by approximately 30 members. During the business meeting, suggestions for club activities were submitted by the advisers, and each was presented with a corsage.

Endeavoring to renew old friendships, the group upon complete organization plans to extend membership to all Las Meninas alumnae. Plans were made for quarterly meetings and the next gathering is to be held in Laguna Beach in June.

Carrying out the traditional colors of the service club, tables were decorated in green and yellow, with baskets of daffodils highlighting the color scheme.

Also during the course of the evening, each member gave a short account of her activities since graduation from college.

The first throw of Rodger's on Thursday was for some 140 feet. On the very next day at the track meet at Cal Tech a boy named Rodger Howell placed first among the four southland jaysees entering the event and bowed only to the representatives of the fouryear institute, Cal Tech. Rodger threw the javelin 153 feet; the winning throw went 159 feet, a mere difference of six feet.

There is much room for improvement in this boy's hurling, his form is bad, his timing poor, but good coaching and time will take care of that.

Other Winners

Kenny Harrison took fourth place in the high jump. Just before the meet started Kenny hurt his heel but insisted on jumping anyway. Kenny has room for improvement; his principal trouble is lack of practice. CAL TECH TROMPS JAYSEES IN YEAR'S FIRST CONTEST

Frosh Student Amazes Coach At First Meet

Throwing the javelin for 153 feet on his second day of hurling, Rodger Howell, freshman student at Santa Ana jaysee, amazed Southland coaches by winning one of the top four places at the re-cent Cal Tech track meet.

Rodger who is pictured at the right, has just been discharged from the Army after having served for one year. In spite of a knee injury which has left him handicapped, and was the cause of his discharge, Rodger still manages to participate in school sports. "More men with his spirit are needed," was the comment of Coach Bill Cook.

He is a former student of jaysee, and has returned to finish out his freshman year before going on to U.C.L.A. His other school activities include the Del Ano photography staff as well as being a reporter and columnist for El Don.

WAA HIKERS

Fifteen eager hikers participated in the WAA walking spree last Friday afternoon, March 24, which began at the junior college and terminated, after many detours, at the Griset home in Tustin.

The women met at 1:30 behind bungalow K, and from there proceeded to Chestnut street. Upon reaching Tustin the hikers were cordially received and invited to "rest their weary bones" at the home of Mr. Walter Rawlings, uncle of Miss Barbara Cox, president of the WAA. There the girls ate their nose-bag lunches and were served cider and pickles to

WAA Beach Party Coming Soon

Friday, April 21 is the day assigned for the big WAA beach party, it was revealed today by the club president, Miss Barbara Cox. The participants will catch the 1:30 bus from Santa Ana and proceed to the home of Carol Miller in Newport, where they will spend the afternoon on the beach.

All women in the student body are invited to attend these WAA hikes and parties, and all attending are reminded to bring their own lunches.

"We are really going to have a swell time," Barbara Cox assured the girls; "so let's see a big bunch out Friday."

Don Trackmen Journey To Windy City

In the first track meet of th year held at Cal Tech, the Califor nia Institute of Technology, boast ing Navy reserves numbering the hundreds, beat the combine forces of Santa Ana, Fullerton Compton, and Chaffey to the tun of 89 to 30.

Compton boasted the stronges team in the Junior college field scoring about twenty-three of the jaysee's thirty points. Compton won firsts in several events, among them the hundred yard dash and the high hurdles, and won place in practically every event.

Fullerton jaysee, hard hit by the manpower shortage, managed third place in the shot put with Ronnie Troutman doing the throw Santa Ana managed to place i the high jump, with Kenny Harrison hitting the bar for 5' 2". Bo Wyrick, wearing jaysee colors fo the last time, won third place is the pole vault, and Rodger Howel placed in the javelin throw.

The other member of the loca squad did not fare so well, by this was due mainly to lack practice. The next meet was to h held Monday at U.C.L.A., but the Dons decided not to participate in this meet as it gave them no time to work for improvement.

Several Dons journeyed t Pasadena for the meet, among them Bob Jones, Kenny Gabriel Robert Miller, Rodger Howell Kenny Harrison, Bill Neth, Bo Gruber, Dick Blake, and Bo Levy. The boys were accompanied
